

COMMERCE CABINET GRANTS AND SERVICES LIST

Fish and Wildlife –

KDFWR's Habitat Improvement Program (HIP) encourages private landowners to put unused farm lands into wildlife friendly habitat. There are HIP funds available to assist them. KDFWR wildlife biologists work directly with landowners, provide habitat plans and technical assistance, along with matching funds to achieve habitat goals. Information and applications are available on the KDFWR website at fw.ky.gov.

KY Heritage Council –

$40,000 for grants, given as a one-time allocation from the Legislature for FY2006-07 to the Kentucky African American Heritage Commission. To date, the commission has not decided how the money will be used (i.e. what types of projects, maximum grant amount, etc.).

As for services, Nicole Wallace on our staff is the African American and Native American heritage coordinator. She works with both the Kentucky African American Heritage Commission and the Kentucky Native American Heritage Commission, which fall under the auspices of our agency, and also works with individuals and grassroots organizations around the state advising on the preservation of African American and Native American buildings, sites and resources.

Office of Energy Policy –

It's not an Office of Energy Policy Grant, but our Web site does contain links on the page at <http://www.energy.ky.gov/dre3/renewable/solar.htm> to the Kentucky Solar Partnership's programs for:

- $500 Rebates for Solar Water Heating Systems
- Low-Interest Loans for Solar Water Heaters (available in 51 Eastern Kentucky counties)

Heritage Education Grants

KHS offers heritage education grants to schools to assist in funding field trips to local and state history sites and projects that engage students in the exploration and study of local and state history. Project grants have funded a variety of curriculum development activities and units of study with Kentucky history themes.

Proposals for field trip grants up to $250 are due on September 30, December 30, March 30, and June 30.

Proposals for project grants up to $500 are due on September 30 and March 30.

For proposal forms and information, contact Annie Voelkert at (502) 564-1792 ext. 4422.

Folk Arts Project, Deadline March 31

The purpose of the Folk Arts Project Grant Program is to help local communities/organizations in their efforts to identify, document, conserve, and/or present folk and traditional culture.

The goals of the Folk Arts Project Program are:

To assist local groups/organizations as they honor, strengthen, and make visible the stylistic and cultural variety of the traditional arts that exist within their community.

To encourage the local documentation, conservation and presentation of community-based arts that have endured over time, carry a sense of community aesthetic, and demonstrate a high degree of artistic excellence within the tradition.

Folk and Traditional Arts Apprenticeship, Deadline March 31

The purpose of the Folk and Traditional Arts Apprenticeship Grant Program is to honor traditional artists and encourage the continuation of Kentucky's living traditional arts by funding master artists to teach their skills, practices and culture to less experienced artists within their community.

The goals of the Folk and Traditional Arts Apprenticeship Program are:

To provide an opportunity for the apprentice to advance his or her understanding and skills of the folk art form to a higher level

To support the recognition and continuation of these traditions within the master's community.

Community Scholar Survey, Deadline April 21

The purpose of the Community Scholar Survey Grant Program is to support Community Scholars' efforts to document, conserve, and present local folk culture.

The goals of the Community Scholar Survey Program are:

- To further locally based folklife research in Kentucky using the Kentucky Folklife Program's guidelines for cultural surveys.
- To develop partnerships with local organizations or events, and share archival research with the partnering organization(s) and the Kentucky Folklife Program.

The Kentucky Folklife Program welcomes all questions regarding these programs. For more information on these grant programs, please contact either:
